

100 Advanced C1-C2 English Vocabulary Activities: A Master Framework

I. Master Activity Template & Technical Specifications

Every activity in this framework adheres to the pedagogical standards of the Cambridge English Corpus and the English Vocabulary Profile (EVP) for C1-C2 learners.

II. Module 1: Advanced Metaphor, Idiom & Figurative Expression

Activity 1

- Title: Intensity of Academic Immersion
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Analyze the metaphorical implications of study-related idioms.
- Instructions: Contrast the intensity and temporal nature of the study metaphors provided.
- Task Prompt: Distinguish between the situational context of "cramming for an exam" versus "burying yourself in your books."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Cramming" implies a short-term, high-pressure effort immediately preceding a deadline. "Burying yourself in books" denotes a long-term, intensive focus on deep, exhaustive study.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Comparative Analysis

Activity 2

- Title: The Glass Ceiling Monologue
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Figurative Expression
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Synthesize the concept of "glass ceilings" within a professional narrative.
- Instructions: Compose and deliver a narrative describing a character's career stagnation using metaphorical language.
- Task Prompt: Create a 2-minute monologue about a high-achieving professional who faces invisible barriers to executive promotion despite being well-qualified.
- Expected Answer/Output: Integration of "glass ceiling" to describe institutional barriers and "stuck in a rut" to signify professional stagnation.
- Difficulty: Mastery

Activity 3

- Title: Technical Mastery Testimonial
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Idiomatic Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply the idiom "know the subject inside out" in a professional context.
- Instructions: Draft a formal recommendation for a colleague's promotion.

- Task Prompt: Write a testimonial for a technician, emphasizing their absolute mastery of complex factory systems.
- Expected Answer/Output: "As a highly diligent candidate, he knows the internal machinery inside out; his technical intuition is unparalleled."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Creative Writing Activity 4
- Title: The Epiphany Transformation
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Metaphorical Shift
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Evaluate the efficacy of "light" metaphors in describing comprehension.
- Instructions: Transform literal descriptions of understanding into figurative "light" expressions.
- Task Prompt: Rewrite: "After three hours of dense negotiation, I finally grasped the underlying legal implications of the takeover."
- Expected Answer/Output: "After three hours of dense negotiation, I finally saw the light regarding the underlying legal implications of the takeover."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Sentence Transformation Activity 5
- Title: Entrepreneurial Trajectory
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Collocation Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Synthesize idioms related to business success.
- Instructions: Describe the rapid growth of a start-up venture.
- Task Prompt: Utilize the phrase "hasn't looked back since" to describe a friend's transition from employee to business owner.
- Expected Answer/Output: "She established her software start-up last year and hasn't looked back since; the venture has proven incredibly lucrative."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Case Study Activity 6
- Title: Magnetic vs. Sharp-Tongued Dynamics
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Positive/Negative Association
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Distinguish between magnetic and repellent personality traits per Unit 8.
- Instructions: Classify specific traits based on their impact on professional rapport.
- Task Prompt: Contrast the likelihood of "establishing a good rapport" when being "astute" versus being "sharp-tongued."
- Expected Answer/Output: Being "astute" (perceptive) facilitates rapport; being "sharp-tongued" (critically severe) hinders social cohesion.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Categorization Activity 7
- Title: Socio-Economic Commentary

- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Evaluate metaphors for financial survival in precarious conditions.
- Instructions: Draft a social commentary regarding the impact of recession on low-income households.
- Task Prompt: Write a 100-word analysis on how "the less well-off" navigate economic downturns using the phrase "making ends meet."
- Expected Answer/Output: Critical use of "making ends meet" to describe the struggle for basic subsistence among "the less well-off."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Short Essay Activity 8
- Title: System Mastery Briefing
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Fluency
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Demonstrate mastery of professional systems through figurative language.
- Instructions: Deliver a mock briefing to a new recruit.
- Task Prompt: Explain the company's "reporting structure" while assuring the recruit that you know the operational "inside out."
- Expected Answer/Output: Natural integration of "inside out" and "reporting structure" within an executive register.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Role-play Activity 9
- Title: Narrative of a Failed Merger
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Register Shift
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Critique a project failure using food-based metaphors from the source.
- Instructions: Compose a post-mortem analysis of a failed corporate takeover.
- Task Prompt: Explain why a high-stakes merger collapsed, specifically utilizing the metaphor "a recipe for disaster."
- Expected Answer/Output: "The total lack of day-to-day collaboration and cultural elitism proved to be a recipe for disaster."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Narrative Writing Activity 10
- Title: Evaluating Growth Metaphors
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Collocation Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Evaluate and justify the use of organic metaphors in business.
- Instructions: Critique the appropriateness of "taking root" versus "reaping rewards" in different development phases.

- Task Prompt: Justify why a start-up in its first week is "taking root" rather than "reaping rewards."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Taking root" implies the initial establishment of a system; "reaping rewards" implies the final harvest of long-term effort.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Justification Task

III. Module 2: Academic & Professional Register Upgrades

Activity 11

- Title: The Academic Taxonomy
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Register Shift
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Distinguish between levels and lengths of academic written work.
- Instructions: Categorize academic documents based on their formal definitions and scope.
- Task Prompt: Rank these by complexity and provide their typical word counts: Thesis, Composition, Dissertation, Assignment.
- Expected Answer/Output: 1. Composition (school level, 50–100 words), 2. Assignment (course component, thousands of words), 3. Dissertation (degree level, 10,000–15,000 words), 4. Thesis (PhD level, 80,000–100,000 words).
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Categorization

Activity 12

- Title: Intellectual Property Mandate
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Register Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Synthesize a formal warning regarding academic integrity.
- Instructions: Draft a formal university policy notice regarding plagiarism.
- Task Prompt: Write a three-sentence warning incorporating: "plagiarism," "acknowledge," and "handing in."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Before handing in any work, students must ensure it is entirely their own. It is mandatory to acknowledge all secondary sources to avoid charges of plagiarism."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Formal Writing

Activity 13

- Title: Scholarly Refinement
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Register Shift
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Transform informal "student-talk" into professional academic English.
- Instructions: Rewrite colloquial student phrases using elevated academic verbs and nouns.

- Task Prompt: Upgrade: "I need to do more work on my paper before I give it to the teacher."
- Expected Answer/Output: "I must carry out further research on my dissertation before I submit it for assessment."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Sentence Transformation Activity 14
- Title: The Tertiary Access Debate
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Fluency
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Evaluate the impact of digital resources on higher education.
- Instructions: Debate the utility of "open educational resources" in contemporary schooling.
- Task Prompt: Argue how "open educational resources" benefit "mature students" and those from "less privileged" backgrounds.
- Expected Answer/Output: Use of "tertiary education," "open educational resources," and "mature students."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Debate Activity 15
- Title: Journalistic vs. Scholarly Distinction
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Contrast "magazines" with "academic journals."
- Instructions: Define the specific criteria for an academic journal.
- Task Prompt: Explain why referring to the British Medical Journal as a "magazine" is terminologically incorrect in a bibliography.
- Expected Answer/Output: Journals publish peer-reviewed papers on specialised subjects for academics; magazines are general-interest and informal.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Short Answer Activity 16
- Title: Thesis Finalization Report
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Collocation Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Apply high-level vocabulary to the terminal stages of research.
- Instructions: Compose a status report for a PhD supervisor.
- Task Prompt: Describe the transition from the "first draft" to "writing up" the final 80,000-word version.
- Expected Answer/Output: "Having completed the first draft, I am currently writing up the final version of my thesis."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Status Report Activity 17
- Title: Academic Attrition Analysis

- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Analyze socio-economic factors in university retention.
- Instructions: Explain the phenomenon of students "dropping out" using source lexicon.
- Task Prompt: Discuss the "demanding" nature of academic study and why some students drop out before their "finals."
- Expected Answer/Output: Discussion of "demanding" coursework leading to students "dropping out" before "finals."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: DiscussionActivity 18
- Title: Resource Procurement Request
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Functional Language
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Utilize specialized academic service terminology.
- Instructions: Draft a formal request to a university librarian.
- Task Prompt: Request a rare paper using the term "inter-library loan."
- Expected Answer/Output: "I wish to request this specific paper via an inter-library loan as it is currently out of stock."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Email WritingActivity 19
- Title: Redefining Intelligence
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Synonym Nuance
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Differentiate between "genius" and "well-qualified" in a scholarly context.
- Instructions: Critique the idea that a "genius" can bypass "rote-learning."
- Task Prompt: Explain why even a "genius" must engage in "revision" to become "well-qualified."
- Expected Answer/Output: Even a genius requires "revision" and "rote-learning" of basics to know a subject "inside out."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Definition TaskActivity 20
- Title: Professional Development Pitch
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Register Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Synthesize academic achievements with professional goals.
- Instructions: Present an 80,000-word thesis as "relevant experience" to a recruitment panel.
- Task Prompt: Pitch how your "dissertation" or "thesis" facilitates your "professional development."

- Expected Answer/Output: Use of "relevant to," "hands-on experience," and "professional development."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Pitch

IV. Module 3: Prefix, Suffix & Complex Word Formation

Activity 21

- Title: Socio-Economic Adjective Synthesis
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Affixation
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Synthesize complex compound adjectives from Unit 2.
- Instructions: Combine roots and affixes to describe financial status.
- Task Prompt: Form a compound adjective describing a school that receives significant private grants.
- Expected Answer/Output: "Well-endowed."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Word Building

Activity 22

- Title: Comparative Institutional Analysis
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Comparative Forms
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply comparative forms of compound adjectives.
- Instructions: Contrast two institutions using "better-off" and "higher-achieving."
- Task Prompt: Compare a selective school and a comprehensive school in terms of student results.
- Expected Answer/Output: "Selective schools are frequently better-off and produce higher-achieving students than comprehensive ones."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Comparative Writing

Activity 23

- Title: Negative Performance Taxonomy
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Transform positive performance traits into negative ones using prefixes.
- Instructions: Modify "performing" to describe a school at the bottom of a "league table."
- Task Prompt: Provide the antonym of a "high-achieving" institution in a national "league table."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Badly-performing" or "lower-achieving."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Antonym Generation

Activity 24

- Title: The "Self-" Prefix in Modern Labor
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Precision

- CEFR Level: C1
 - Objective: Differentiate between corporate and independent employment.
 - Instructions: Incorporate "self-employed" into a career narrative.
 - Task Prompt: Describe a professional who transitions from a multinational to freelance work.
 - Expected Answer/Output: "After years in the corporate sector, she became self-employed as a consultant."
 - Difficulty: Advanced
 - Activity Type: Narrative Writing
- Activity 25
- Title: Employment Role Suffixes
 - Skill: Lexical Analysis
 - Subskill: Grammatical Category Shift
 - CEFR Level: C1
 - Objective: Form nouns from verbs related to workplace hierarchy.
 - Instructions: Transform "recruit" and "supervise" into person-nouns.
 - Task Prompt: Identify the individual who joins the company and the one who evaluates them.
 - Expected Answer/Output: "New recruit" and "supervisor."
 - Difficulty: Advanced
 - Activity Type: Transformation
- Activity 26
- Title: Leadership Trait Suffixes
 - Skill: Writing
 - Subskill: Stylistic Precision
 - CEFR Level: C2
 - Objective: Formulate formal adjectives for executive traits.
 - Instructions: Describe a "born leader" using the suffix "-ous."
 - Task Prompt: Characterize an employee who is "methodical" and "conscientious."
 - Expected Answer/Output: "Her methodical nature and conscientiousness make her a born leader."
 - Difficulty: Mastery
 - Activity Type: Sentence Completion
- Activity 27
- Title: Global English Variations
 - Skill: Lexical Analysis
 - Subskill: Creating New Meanings
 - CEFR Level: C2
 - Objective: Evaluate terms for linguistic diversity in a global context.
 - Instructions: Explain the irony of the phrase "divided by a common language."
 - Task Prompt: Using Unit 98, analyze how US and UK academic terminology (e.g., "thesis" vs "PhD assignment") reflects global variation.
 - Expected Answer/Output: Analysis of how regional lexical differences (US/UK) cause confusion despite shared linguistic roots.
 - Difficulty: Mastery
 - Activity Type: Discussion
- Activity 28
- Title: Qualification Component Analysis

- Skill: Lexical Analysis
 - Subskill: Semantic Mapping
 - CEFR Level: C2
 - Objective: Deconstruct the technical meaning of "well-qualified."
 - Instructions: Distinguish between personal intelligence and formal certification.
 - Task Prompt: Does being "well-qualified" denote high IQ or the possession of formal certification?
 - Expected Answer/Output: It specifically refers to possessing the "right formal qualifications."
 - Difficulty: Mastery
 - Activity Type: Semantic Analysis
- Activity 29
- Title: "Anti-" and "Inter-" in Professional Grievances
 - Skill: Writing
 - Subskill: Collocation
 - CEFR Level: C1
 - Objective: Apply prefixes to workplace and academic infrastructure.
 - Instructions: Compose a complaint regarding shift work and resource scarcity.
 - Task Prompt: Use "anti-social hours" and "inter-library loans" in a letter of complaint.
 - Expected Answer/Output: "The anti-social hours and the constant need for inter-library loans have made this role untenable."
 - Difficulty: Advanced
 - Activity Type: Letter of Complaint
- Activity 30
- Title: Prefix Revision: Professional Pivot
 - Skill: Lexical Analysis
 - Subskill: Meaning Refinement
 - CEFR Level: C2
 - Objective: Contrast initial training with mid-career skill acquisition.
 - Instructions: Select the appropriate "re-" prefix for a career change.
 - Task Prompt: A technician transitions into software development. Did they undergo "training" or "retraining"?
 - Expected Answer/Output: "Retraining."
 - Difficulty: Mastery
 - Activity Type: Contextual Choice

V. Module 4: Compound Nouns, Adjectives & Multi-Word Units

Activity 31

- Title: The Two-Tier System Critique
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Evaluate the impact of "league tables" on social mobility.
- Instructions: Critique the educational divide using specific compounds.
- Task Prompt: Discuss how "league tables" perpetuate a "two-tier system" in education.

- Expected Answer/Output: They divide institutions into "success and failure," thereby "perpetuating inequalities."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: DiscussionActivity 32
- Title: Policy Drafting: Educational Equality
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Collocation Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Synthesize "equality of opportunity" in a policy framework.
- Instructions: Draft a mission statement for a comprehensive schooling reform.
- Task Prompt: Utilize "equality of opportunity" to advocate for a move away from "selective schooling."
- Expected Answer/Output: "The central aim of curriculum reform is to ensure equality of opportunity via comprehensive schooling."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Policy WritingActivity 33
- Title: Higher Education Financial Aid Taxonomy
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Functional Vocabulary
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Categorize types of financial support for students.
- Instructions: Define the distinct characteristics of loans, scholarships, and bursaries.
- Task Prompt: Identify which financial aid type requires repayment post-graduation.
- Expected Answer/Output: Student loans.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Definition TaskActivity 34
- Title: Work-Life Balance Interview Strategy
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Register Shift
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply "work-life balance" in a professional interview.
- Instructions: Formulate a sophisticated query about company culture.
- Task Prompt: Inquire about the company's commitment to employee health using "work-life balance."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Could you elaborate on the company's policies regarding a sustainable work-life balance?"
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Role-playActivity 35
- Title: Structural Hierarchy Description
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Precision
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Utilize "reporting structure" and "line manager" in an organizational context.
- Instructions: Describe the chain of command for a new recruit.

- Task Prompt: Use "reporting structure" to explain that the recruit reports to their "line manager."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Our reporting structure is strictly hierarchical; you will report to your line manager."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Descriptive Writing Activity 36
- Title: Workplace Flexibility Problem-Solving
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Contrast "hot-desking" and "job-share" for specific employee needs.
- Instructions: Match workplace policies to individual circumstances.
- Task Prompt: Which policy is more suitable for an employee with "childcare responsibilities"?
- Expected Answer/Output: "Job-share."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Problem Solving Activity 37
- Title: In-House Training Advocacy
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Fluency
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Pitch an internal "professional development" course.
- Instructions: Persuade a supervisor to invest in "in-house training."
- Task Prompt: Advocate for "professional development" using the "in-house" compound.
- Expected Answer/Output: "We should establish an in-house training programme to enhance professional development."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Persuasive Speaking Activity 38
- Title: The Niche Market Scenario
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Semantic Precision
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply "niche market" to a retail scenario.
- Instructions: Characterize a specialized business model.
- Task Prompt: A company sells "software for left-handed architects." Define this market type.
- Expected Answer/Output: A "niche market."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Short Answer Activity 39
- Title: Capital Asset Audit
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Meaning Refinement
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Identify "capital assets" in a corporate liquidation.

- Instructions: List items that constitute a company's tangible capital.
- Task Prompt: In a business sale, which items (e.g., machinery, staff, buildings) are "capital assets"?
- Expected Answer/Output: Buildings and machinery.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Identification Activity 40
- Title: Compound Adjective Proofreading
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Lexical Editing
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Correct hyphenation and usage in complex adjectives.
- Instructions: Edit professional descriptions for punctuation accuracy.
- Task Prompt: Correct: "He is a well qualified candidate for the fast paced job."
- Expected Answer/Output: "He is a well-qualified candidate for the fast-paced job."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Error Correction

VI. Module 5: Phrasal Verbs & Particle Nuance

Activity 41

- Title: Academic Finality: "Out" vs. "Finish"
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Particle Nuance
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Analyze the sense of abandonment in the particle "out."
- Instructions: Define "drop out" in a university context.
- Task Prompt: Explain the nuance of "dropping out" compared to "completing" a course.
- Expected Answer/Output: "Dropping out" implies leaving the course prematurely without attaining the qualification.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Definition Task Activity 42
- Title: The "Knocking Off" Register
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Register Awareness
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Contrast "knocking off" with formal "finishing."
- Instructions: Use informal phrasal verbs with a workmate.
- Task Prompt: Invite a colleague to a social event after the shift concludes.
- Expected Answer/Output: "Are you interested in a drink once we knock off at five?"
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Role-play Activity 43
- Title: Escalating Responsibility
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Particle Nuance
- CEFR Level: C2

- Objective: Apply "take on" to describe professional growth.
 - Instructions: Describe a promotion using the particle "on."
 - Task Prompt: Use "take on" to describe accepting new "managerial responsibilities."
 - Expected Answer/Output: "In my new role, I am eager to take on more responsibility for the team."
 - Difficulty: Mastery
 - Activity Type: Sentence Construction
- Activity 44
- Title: Skill Maintenance Nuance
 - Skill: Lexical Analysis
 - Subskill: Meaning Refinement
 - CEFR Level: C1
 - Objective: Evaluate the difference between "brushing up" and "retraining."
 - Instructions: Select the verb for refreshing old knowledge.
 - Task Prompt: If a technician knows a software but hasn't used it for a year, do they need "retraining" or to "brush up"?
 - Expected Answer/Output: To "brush up" (refresh existing knowledge).
 - Difficulty: Advanced
 - Activity Type: Multiple Choice
- Activity 45
- Title: Workplace Tolerance Discussion
 - Skill: Speaking
 - Subskill: Fluency
 - CEFR Level: C2
 - Objective: Synthesize "put up with" in a debate on "job satisfaction."
 - Instructions: Discuss the threshold for tolerating "monotonous" work.
 - Task Prompt: Would you "put up with" a "mind-numbing" job for high "financial reward"?
 - Expected Answer/Output: Critical discussion using "put up with" to mean tolerate.
 - Difficulty: Mastery
 - Activity Type: Discussion
- Activity 46
- Title: The Hard Sell: "Parting With" Capital
 - Skill: Writing
 - Subskill: Collocation
 - CEFR Level: C2
 - Objective: Apply "part with" in a commercial context.
 - Instructions: Describe a high-pressure sales tactic.
 - Task Prompt: How does "telemarketing" convince customers to "part with their money"?
 - Expected Answer/Output: They use the "hard sell" or "cold calling" to persuade customers to part with their money.
 - Difficulty: Mastery
 - Activity Type: Short Essay
- Activity 47
- Title: The "Go In With" Venture
 - Skill: Lexical Analysis
 - Subskill: Particle Nuance

- CEFR Level: C1
 - Objective: Analyze the collaborative particle cluster "in with."
 - Instructions: Use "go in with" to describe a business partnership.
 - Task Prompt: Explain how a "start-up" was formed by two colleagues.
 - Expected Answer/Output: "She decided to go in with a friend to establish a software start-up."
 - Difficulty: Advanced
 - Activity Type: Sentence Completion
- Activity 48
- Title: Identifying Competitive Phrasal Verbs
 - Skill: Reading
 - Subskill: Information Retrieval
 - CEFR Level: C1
 - Objective: Identify phrasal verbs in recruitment texts.
 - Instructions: Locate the verb in Unit 3 meaning "to be superior to others."
 - Task Prompt: Identify the phrasal verb: "You want your application to _____."
 - Expected Answer/Output: "Stand out."
 - Difficulty: Advanced
 - Activity Type: Identification
- Activity 49
- Title: Administrative "Fill In" Instructions
 - Skill: Writing
 - Subskill: Functional Language
 - CEFR Level: C1
 - Objective: Use "fill in" for procedural administrative tasks.
 - Instructions: Instruct a candidate on the job application process.
 - Task Prompt: Tell a "new recruit" to complete the digital "application form."
 - Expected Answer/Output: "Please fill in the online application form to complete your recruitment."
 - Difficulty: Advanced
 - Activity Type: Instruction Writing
- Activity 50
- Title: Categorizing Termination Verbs
 - Skill: Lexical Analysis
 - Subskill: Synonym Nuance
 - CEFR Level: C2
 - Objective: Contrast the phrasal verbs "knock off" and "drop out."
 - Instructions: Categorize verbs by their duration (daily vs. permanent).
 - Task Prompt: Which phrasal verb denotes the permanent abandonment of a university degree?
 - Expected Answer/Output: "Drop out."
 - Difficulty: Mastery
 - Activity Type: Categorization

VII. Module 6: Fixed Expressions, Pragmatics & Conversational Markers

Activity 51

- Title: Authorization: Getting the Go-Ahead

- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Functional Language
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply the fixed expression "get the go-ahead."
- Instructions: Inform a line manager that a project can commence.
- Task Prompt: Use "get the go-ahead" to announce the launch of a new initiative.
- Expected Answer/Output: "We have finally got the go-ahead to proceed with the start-up."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Role-play Activity 52
- Title: Strategic Lexical Vagueness
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Strategic Vagueness
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Use "whatchamacallit" to manage cognitive gaps during speech.
- Instructions: Describe a specialized tool when the technical term is momentarily forgotten.
- Task Prompt: Use "whatchamacallit" to refer to an item of "scientific equipment."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Could you pass me that... whatchamacallit... for the technician?"
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Improvised Speaking Activity 53
- Title: Expressions of Praise
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Idiomatic Praise
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply "praising" expressions from Unit 75.
- Instructions: Congratulate a colleague on their performance.
- Task Prompt: Give a colleague a "pat on the back" for their "stimulating" work.
- Expected Answer/Output: "You deserve a pat on the back for excelling in this challenging role."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Informal Note Activity 54
- Title: Estimated Precision: "Give or Take"
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Functional Language
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Use vague expressions for quantitative estimates.
- Instructions: Estimate the length of a "thesis."
- Task Prompt: State the approximate length of an 80,000-word thesis.
- Expected Answer/Output: "It is approximately 80,000 words, give or take."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Short Answer Activity 55
- Title: Reflective Pragmatics

- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Pragmatics
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Synthesize "reminiscence" and career reflection.
- Instructions: Narrate a past experience in a "dead-end job."
- Task Prompt: Use "looking back" to discuss being "stuck in a rut" in a former role.
- Expected Answer/Output: "Looking back, I was stuck in a rut in that dead-end job for far too long."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Narrative Speaking Activity 56
- Title: Negotiating a Compromise
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Negotiation
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Synthesize "reach a compromise" and "hammer out a deal."
- Instructions: Conclude a "takeover" negotiation.
- Task Prompt: Act as a CEO finalizing a deal where both parties made concessions.
- Expected Answer/Output: "After much debate, we managed to hammer out a deal and reach a compromise."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Role-play Activity 57
- Title: The "Talk Shop" Pragmatic Rule
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Register Awareness
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Evaluate the social appropriateness of "talking shop."
- Instructions: Define the term and its negative social connotation.
- Task Prompt: Why is "talking shop" at a party often considered "anti-social"?
- Expected Answer/Output: It refers to discussing work in social settings, which excludes non-colleagues.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Short Answer Activity 58
- Title: Formal Protest Against "Red Tape"
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Functional Register
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Formulate a formal protest regarding bureaucracy.
- Instructions: Draft a formal email to a government "authority."
- Task Prompt: Use "protest," "irritated by," and "red tape" to complain about administrative delays.
- Expected Answer/Output: "I am writing to protest the excessive red tape hindering our administration."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Formal Email Activity 59

- Title: Upgrading Vague Nouns
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Strategic Vagueness
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Identify sophisticated vague nouns from Unit 82.
- Instructions: Replace "thing" with "item" or "merchandise."
- Task Prompt: Replace "thing": "The company produces many things for the leisure market."
- Expected Answer/Output: "The company produces extensive merchandise for the leisure market."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Vocabulary Substitution
- Title: Complimenting Personality
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Social Nuance
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply "magnetic personality" and "good company."
- Instructions: Describe a charismatic colleague.
- Task Prompt: Explain why the new "Customer Service Assistant" has high "staff morale."
- Expected Answer/Output: "She has a magnetic personality and is always good company."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Description

VIII. Module 7: Domain-Specific Lexicon: Media, Politics & Law

Activity 61

- Title: The Letter vs. The Spirit
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Contrast "the letter of the law" with judicial intent.
- Instructions: Define "the letter of the law" in a judicial context.
- Task Prompt: Explain the consequences when a judge follows "the letter of the law" strictly.
- Expected Answer/Output: It denotes following the literal wording of the law rather than its intent.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Definition Task
- Title: Geopolitical Merger Analysis
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Register Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Evaluate terms for "International Politics."

- Instructions: Discuss a global "merger" using political lexicon.
- Task Prompt: Use "swallowed up" to describe a smaller nation's industry in "international politics."
- Expected Answer/Output: Analysis of how local industries are "swallowed up" by multinationals.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Discussion Activity 63
- Title: The News Cycle: Gathering vs. Delivering
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Media Lexicon
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply Unit 50 news terminology.
- Instructions: Describe a journalist's "mundane" versus "stimulating" tasks.
- Task Prompt: Use "gathering" and "delivering" to describe the news production process.
- Expected Answer/Output: "While gathering the news is stimulating, delivering it can become repetitive."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Narrative Writing Activity 64
- Title: Political Impact of League Tables
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Semantic Mapping
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply educational compounds to a political context.
- Instructions: Explain a politician's concern with "league tables."
- Task Prompt: Why do "league tables" matter for "curriculum reform"?
- Expected Answer/Output: They highlight "badly-performing" schools that require intervention.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Analytical Writing Activity 65
- Title: Bureaucratic Diplomacy
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Fluency
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Synthesize "red tape" and "reach a compromise."
- Instructions: Role-play a diplomat frustrated by administrative barriers.
- Task Prompt: Complain about "red tape" preventing nations from "hammering out a deal."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Excessive red tape is hindering our ability to reach a compromise."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Role-play Activity 66
- Title: Legalities of Academic Conduct
- Skill: Lexical Analysis

- Subskill: Collocation
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Identify "serious offences" in institutional law.
- Instructions: Characterize "plagiarism" using legal register.
- Task Prompt: Why is "plagiarism" a "serious offence" in "tertiary education"?
- Expected Answer/Output: It is a violation of intellectual property; students must "acknowledge sources."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Short Answer Activity 67
- Title: Media Classification: Print vs. Academic
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Register Awareness
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Distinguish between "academic journals" and "print media."
- Instructions: Categorize publications by depth and audience.
- Task Prompt: Distinguish between a "paper" in a journal and an "article" in a magazine.
- Expected Answer/Output: Papers are research-based (journals); articles are for the general public (magazines).
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Categorization Activity 68
- Title: Manifesto Drafting: Educational Reform
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Policy Lexicon
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Apply "curriculum reform" and "equality of opportunity."
- Instructions: Draft a political promise regarding schooling.
- Task Prompt: Write a manifesto sentence using "curriculum reform" and "equality of opportunity."
- Expected Answer/Output: "We will enact curriculum reform to guarantee equality of opportunity."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Sentence Construction Activity 69
- Title: Critiquing Bureaucratic Red Tape
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Critique the presence of "red tape" in government systems.
- Instructions: Evaluate how "authorities" use administration to control processes.
- Task Prompt: Critique a hypothetical government department's reliance on "red tape" versus efficient "administration."
- Expected Answer/Output: Analysis of how "red tape" (negative) stifles progress while "administration" (neutral) organizes it.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Critique Task Activity 70

- Title: Political Headline Synthesis
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Stylistic Precision
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Apply news-gathering terminology to headlines.
- Instructions: Draft a headline regarding a political compromise.
- Task Prompt: Use "reach a compromise" in a headline about "international politics."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Global Powers Reach a Compromise on Trade Reform."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Headline Writing

IX. Module 8: Domain-Specific Lexicon: Business, Tech & Economics

Activity 71

- Title: Finalizing the Takeover
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Functional Language
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply "hammer out a deal" in a business role-play.
- Instructions: Negotiate the final terms of a "takeover."
- Task Prompt: Act out the end of a meeting where you discuss "capital assets."
- Expected Answer/Output: "We have finally managed to hammer out a deal regarding the capital assets."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Role-play

Activity 72

- Title: Lucrative Venture Case Study
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Precision
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply "lucrative" and "start-up" in a business context.
- Instructions: Describe the financial success of a "software company."
- Task Prompt: Summarize the outcome of a successful start-up using "lucrative."
- Expected Answer/Output: "The software start-up proved to be a highly lucrative venture."
- Difficulty: Advanced

Activity 73

- Title: Purchasing Power & Brand Loyalty
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Semantic Mapping
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Evaluate the relationship between wealth and consumer choice.
- Instructions: Analyze how "purchasing power" affects "brand loyalty."
- Task Prompt: Discuss whether "brand loyalty" remains static during a decline in "purchasing power."

- Expected Answer/Output: Analysis of how "purchasing power" limits choices regardless of "brand loyalty."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Analytical Writing Activity 74
- Title: Loss Leader Strategy Analysis
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Definition Task
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Define "loss leader" in a retail context.
- Instructions: Explain the strategic use of unprofitable items.
- Task Prompt: Define "loss leader" and its role in attracting "footfall."
- Expected Answer/Output: An item sold below cost to attract customers who buy other profitable goods.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Definition Task Activity 75
- Title: Niche Market Pitch
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Fluency
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Synthesize "niche market" and "merchandise."
- Instructions: Pitch a specialized product for a technical group.
- Task Prompt: Suggest "merchandise" for a "niche market" of software technicians.
- Expected Answer/Output: A pitch for a specialized tool aimed at a small, specific market.
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Pitch Activity 76
- Title: Capital Asset Reinvestment
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Collocation
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Apply "capital assets" and "invest in" in a financial context.
- Instructions: Describe a company's funding strategy.
- Task Prompt: Explain how a "start-up" was funded via the "sale of capital assets."
- Expected Answer/Output: "The sale of capital assets allowed the CEO to invest in a new start-up."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Report Writing Activity 77
- Title: Bureaucratic Impediments
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Register Awareness
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Evaluate the impact of "red tape" on corporate administration.
- Instructions: Complain about a delayed "merger."
- Task Prompt: Use "red tape" to explain why a business "proposition" was delayed.

- Expected Answer/Output: "The business proposition was hindered by excessive red tape."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Role-play Activity 78
- Title: Under the Hammer: Auction Lexicon
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Idiomatic Precision
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Apply "under the hammer" to a high-value sale.
- Instructions: Describe the process of selling a "capital asset" at auction.
- Task Prompt: Use the idiomatic expression for an item being sold at an auction.
- Expected Answer/Output: The item "goes under the hammer."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Short Answer Activity 79
- Title: Formal Takeover Proposition
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Register Shift
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Formulate a formal "proposition."
- Instructions: Draft an offer for a corporate "takeover."
- Task Prompt: Write a formal "proposition" for a "takeover" of capital assets.
- Expected Answer/Output: "We wish to submit a formal proposition for the takeover of your capital assets."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Formal Writing Activity 80
- Title: Recession & Redundancy Ethics
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Contextual Choice
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Contrast "voluntary" and "compulsory" redundancy during a "recession."
- Instructions: Analyze the impact of redundancy types on "staff morale."
- Task Prompt: Critique whether "voluntary redundancy" is more ethical than "compulsory redundancy."
- Expected Answer/Output: Analysis using "recession," "staff morale," and "voluntary redundancy."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Analytical Writing

X. Module 9: Connotation, Stylistic Precision & Synonym Nuance

Activity 81

- Title: Shrewd vs. Cunning: Affective Values
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Connotation
- CEFR Level: C2

- Objective: Evaluate the affective differences between intelligence-related adjectives.
- Instructions: Choose the word that implies "deviousness" per Unit 8.
- Task Prompt: Explain why calling a colleague "cunning" is an insult, while "shrewd" is a compliment.
- Expected Answer/Output: "Shrewd" is positive (perceptive); "cunning" is negative and implies a devious, animal-like nature.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Contextual Choice Activity 82
- Title: Spending Habits: Extravagant vs. Generous
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Contrast spending connotations.
- Instructions: Use "extravagant" to describe excessive spending.
- Task Prompt: Characterize a person who overspends on "merchandise."
- Expected Answer/Output: "His extravagant lifestyle led to the loss of his capital assets."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Description Activity 83
- Title: Astute vs. Witty
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Synonym Nuance
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Differentiate between perceptiveness and humor.
- Instructions: Match traits to professional actions.
- Task Prompt: Which trait describes a person who makes clever, humorous observations?
- Expected Answer/Output: "Witty."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Matching Activity 84
- Title: Stingy vs. Thrifty
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Register Shift
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Analyze the negative connotation of "stingy."
- Instructions: Use "stingy" in a workplace critique.
- Task Prompt: Describe a colleague who refuses to contribute to social "merchandise."
- Expected Answer/Output: "He is remarkably stingy when it comes to social events."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Role-play Activity 85
- Title: Methodical vs. Work-Obsessed
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C1

- Objective: Evaluate Unit 8 personality traits.
- Instructions: Contrast systematic work with unhealthy obsession.
- Task Prompt: Is being "methodical" a positive or negative trait compared to "work-obsessed"?
- Expected Answer/Output: "Methodical" is positive (systematic); "work-obsessed" is negative (unbalanced).
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Short Answer Activity 86
- Title: Naive vs. Intuitive
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Connotation
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Differentiate between "trusting" and "perceptive."
- Instructions: Contrast these two traits in a narrative.
- Task Prompt: Describe how a "naive" person and an "intuitive" person react to a scam.
- Expected Answer/Output: "The naive person was fooled; the intuitive person sensed the danger."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Creative Writing Activity 87
- Title: Sullen vs. Placid
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Semantic Precision
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Contrast "calm" synonyms from Unit 8.
- Instructions: Match the emotion to the source term.
- Task Prompt: Which word describes a person who is "calm and does not easily become angry"?
- Expected Answer/Output: "Placid."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Multiple Choice Activity 88
- Title: Tactless vs. Sharp-Tongued
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Fluency
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Analyze the severity of interpersonal rudeness.
- Instructions: Distinguish between accidental and critical rudeness.
- Task Prompt: Explain the difference between being "tactless" and "sharp-tongued."
- Expected Answer/Output: "Sharp-tongued" implies severe, critical speech; "tactless" is an accidental lack of sensitivity.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Discussion Activity 89
- Title: Conscientious vs. Industrious
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Nuance Detection

- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Evaluate "hard-working" synonyms.
- Instructions: Use "conscientious" to describe a "careful" worker.
- Task Prompt: Which word emphasizes the quality of being "systematic and careful"?
- Expected Answer/Output: "Conscientious."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Short Answer
- Activity 90
- Title: Magnetic vs. Pushy Leadership
- Skill: Speaking
- Subskill: Social Nuance
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Synthesize "magnetic personality" and "pushy."
- Instructions: Contrast attractive leadership with self-serving behavior.
- Task Prompt: Evaluate why a "magnetic" leader achieves higher "staff morale" than a "pushy" one.
- Expected Answer/Output: "Magnetic" leaders attract followers; "pushy" leaders selfishly promote themselves.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Comparison

XI. Module 10: Lexical Proofreading, Text Editing & Corpus Refinement

Activity 91

- Title: Academic Lexical Audit
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Error Correction
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Correct academic terminology using specific word-count data.
- Instructions: Fix the usage of "assignment" for a PhD-level work.
- Task Prompt: Correct: "After four years, I finally submitted my 90,000-word PhD assignment."
- Expected Answer/Output: "After four years, I finally submitted my 90,000-word PhD thesis."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Error Correction
- Activity 92
- Title: Corporate Register Refinement
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Register Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Correct formal work terminology for "pay rises."
- Instructions: Replace informal "pay rise" with "salary increment."
- Task Prompt: Edit: "The company offers annual pay rises to all well-qualified staff."
- Expected Answer/Output: "The company offers annual salary increments to all well-qualified staff."
- Difficulty: Advanced

- Activity Type: EditingActivity 93
- Title: Notice Period Corpus Correction
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Information Retrieval
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Apply correct business terminology for leaving a job.
- Instructions: Correct the term for "leaving period."
- Task Prompt: Edit: "My leaving period is three months."
- Expected Answer/Output: "My notice period is three months."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: EditingActivity 94
- Title: Reporting Structure Justification
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Functional Register
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Justify the correct use of "structure" over "hierarchy."
- Instructions: Explain why "reporting structure" is the standard collocation.
- Task Prompt: Based on the source, why is "reporting structure" preferred over "reporting hierarchy"?
- Expected Answer/Output: "Reporting structure" is the standard professional collocation used to define chain of command.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Justification TaskActivity 95
- Title: Source Acknowledgment Proofread
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Register Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Correct academic verbs for source usage.
- Instructions: Use "acknowledge" correctly in a policy context.
- Task Prompt: Correct: "You must mention all sources to avoid plagiarism."
- Expected Answer/Output: "You must acknowledge all sources to avoid plagiarism."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: EditingActivity 96
- Title: Corpus Analysis: "Look For" vs. "Look To"
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Collocation
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Analyze common mistakes from the Cambridge Learner Corpus.
- Instructions: Correct the verb used for future planning.
- Task Prompt: Correct: "He is looking for work in London next year." (When planning, not searching).
- Expected Answer/Output: "He is looking to work in London next year."
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Corpus ComparisonActivity 97

- Title: Boring Work: Nuance Check
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Nuance Detection
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Correct adjective usage for repetitive work.
- Instructions: Distinguish between "mundane" and "monotonous."
- Task Prompt: Correct: "The job is mundane because it repeats every hour." (Focus on repetition).
- Expected Answer/Output: "The job is monotonous because it repeats every hour."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Editing
- Activity 98
- Title: Parental Leave Register
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Register Awareness
- CEFR Level: C1
- Objective: Correct informal "mother leave."
- Instructions: Replace with "maternity leave."
- Task Prompt: Edit: "She is on mother leave for six months."
- Expected Answer/Output: "She is on maternity leave for six months."
- Difficulty: Advanced
- Activity Type: Editing
- Activity 99
- Title: "Talk Shop" Error Justification
- Skill: Lexical Analysis
- Subskill: Idiomatic Accuracy
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Correct and justify the removal of "about" in "talk shop."
- Instructions: Explain the error "talk about shop" based on common learner mistakes.
- Task Prompt: Correct: "We try not to talk about shop." Explain the grammatical error.
- Expected Answer/Output: "We try not to talk shop." "Talk shop" is a fixed idiomatic phrase; "about" is redundant.
- Difficulty: Mastery
- Activity Type: Justification Task
- Activity 100
- Title: The Master Synthesis Capstone
- Skill: Writing
- Subskill: Register Shift & Collocation
- CEFR Level: C2
- Objective: Synthesize academic register, word formation, and professional collocations.
- Instructions: Rewrite a flawed biography into a professional scholarly profile.
- Task Prompt: Transform: "John did a 90k assignment (1). He was a clever guy (2) but didn't look for (3) work. He is currently self employed (4) and doesn't talk about shop (5)."
- Expected Answer/Output: (1) Thesis, (2) Shrewd/Astute, (3) Look to, (4) Self-employed (with hyphen), (5) Talk shop.
- Difficulty: Mastery

- Activity Type: Comprehensive Synthesis