

100 Advanced C1–C2 English Grammar Activities

A Master Curriculum & Production Guide Grounded in Raymond Murphy's English Grammar in Use

Module 1: Present & Past Aspectual Choice

Activity 1: Contrasting Present Simple and Continuous in Executive Statements	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Aspectual contrast in corporate updates (Aspectual Contrast)
Objective	Distinguish between permanent corporate stances (simple) and temporary strategic initiatives (continuous).
Instructions	Rephrase the sentence pair to reflect a permanent corporate principle versus a temporary quarterly campaign.
Task Prompt	Prompt: 'We sell software globally / We promote our new AI module this month.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'While our enterprise primarily develops and distributes global software solutions, we are currently spearheading a targeted promotional campaign for our newly launched AI module this quarter.'
Activity 2: Continuous State Verb Semantic Shifts in Formal Debates	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Stative vs. dynamic verb meaning shifts (Stative Verb Nuance)
Objective	Deploy continuous forms of stative verbs (e.g., consider, feel, mind, weigh) to signal ongoing deliberation.
Instructions	Draft a statement using 'is considering' and 'are weighing' to reflect active board negotiations.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Frame a corporate merger negotiation using continuous stative verbs.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The board is currently considering three acquisition offers and is carefully weighing the regulatory compliance risks associated with each proposal.'

Activity 3: Present Perfect Continuous vs. Simple in Quarterly Financial Reviews	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Duration vs. completion reporting (Fiscal Progress Reporting)
Objective	Differentiate ongoing processes (Present Perfect Continuous) from completed fiscal achievements (Present Perfect Simple).
Instructions	Write a 2-sentence financial summary contrasting ongoing R&D; expenditures with completed capital raises.
Task Prompt	Prompt: R&D; spending ongoing for 3 years vs. $50M raised last week.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Our engineering department has been expanding its green tech research for three years. Consequently, the executive team has successfully secured $50 million in Series C equity funding.'

Activity 4: Past Continuous vs. Past Simple in Incident Investigation Reports	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Background action vs. interrupting event (Incident Analysis)
Objective	Use Past Continuous to establish operational context and Past Simple for critical system disruptions.
Instructions	Synthesize two statements into a cohesive incident report sentence establishing background context and event trigger.
Task Prompt	Prompt: System backup running at midnight / Cyber attack breached firewall at 00:14.
Expected Answer	Output: 'While the IT infrastructure was executing its routine midnight database backup, an external cyber attack breached the primary firewall at 00:14.'

Activity 5: Habitual Past: Used to vs. Would in Historical Economic Analysis	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Distinguishing past states from repeated past actions (Historical Contrast)
Objective	Utilize 'used to' for past economic states and 'would' for repeated historical market behaviors.
Instructions	Construct a historical comparison of 19th-century central banking practices.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Bank of England held vast gold reserves (state) / Intervention in gold markets during panics (repeated action).
Expected Answer	Output: 'The central bank used to maintain immense physical gold reserves; during monetary panics, governors would routinely adjust discount rates to stabilize liquidity.'

Activity 6: Past Perfect Simple vs. Continuous in Forensic Accounting	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Prior duration vs. prior completion (Forensic Narrative)
Objective	Deploy Past Perfect Continuous to highlight cumulative operational duration before a historic audit.
Instructions	Audit summary: Company laundered funds for five years before regulators intervened.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Explain the duration of illicit activity prior to regulatory discovery.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The subsidiary had been systematically inflating revenue figures for five years before national securities regulators initiated a formal forensic audit.'

Activity 7: Unfulfilled Past Intentions: Was/Were Going To	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Expressing altered corporate plans (Strategic Recalibration)
Objective	Use 'was/were going to' to articulate planned corporate strategies that were superseded by market conditions.
Instructions	Explain why an initial public offering (IPO) was postponed.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Company planned Q3 IPO / Market volatility forced delay.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The executive committee was going to launch the initial public offering in Q3, but sudden macroeconomic volatility forced a strategic deferral until Q1.'

Activity 8: Present Perfect with 'It's the first time...'	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Expressing novel institutional milestones (Milestone Framing)
Objective	Structure high-level announcements using 'It is/was the first time' followed by Present/Past Perfect clauses.
Instructions	Announce a major corporate environmental breakthrough.
Task Prompt	Prompt: First time operating with 100% renewable energy.
Expected Answer	Output: 'This marks the first time that our manufacturing facility has operated entirely on localized solar and wind energy.'

Activity 9: Continuous Aspect for Irritation or Habit: 'Always + -ing'	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing/Speaking — Nuanced criticism in peer evaluations (Diplomatic Critique)
Objective	Deploy 'always/continually + Present Continuous' to express controlled professional criticism or systemic friction.
Instructions	Write a constructive performance critique regarding project deadline management.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Critique a lead developer who repeatedly submits code without peer review.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The lead developer is continually submitting code commits without preliminary peer reviews, creating severe integration bottlenecks for the QA team.'

Activity 10: Present Perfect vs. Past Simple in Biographical Keynotes	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking — Distinguishing lifetime achievements from finished eras (Keynote Address)
Objective	Combine Past Simple (historical milestones) and Present Perfect (ongoing impact) in an executive introduction.
Instructions	Draft an introductory keynote speech snippet for an industry pioneer.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Founded tech firm in 1998 (past) / Revolutionized global logistics (ongoing impact).
Expected Answer	Output: 'Dr. Aris Thorne founded his logistics enterprise in 1998; over the past quarter-century, his innovations have fundamentally transformed global supply chain management.'

Module 2: Future Commitments & Formal Plans

Activity 11: Formal Schedules: Present Simple vs. Present Continuous in Agendas	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Timetabled events vs. personal/corporate arrangements (Itinerary Drafting)
Objective	Differentiate fixed official timetables (Present Simple) from arranged corporate meetings (Present Continuous).
Instructions	Draft an itinerary email combining a flight schedule with an executive client dinner.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Flight departs at 08:30 / Meeting client at 19:00.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Our flight departs at 08:30 on Tuesday morning, and we are meeting the chief investment officer for a private dinner at 19:00.'

Activity 12: Formal Mandates: 'Be to + Infinitive' in Treaty and Policy Writing	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Expressing official instructions and future requirements (Policy Drafting)
Objective	Utilize 'be to + infinitive' for diplomatic directives and official administrative mandates.
Instructions	Draft a regulatory compliance requirement for commercial banks.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Mandate that commercial banks submit quarterly stress test results by December.
Expected Answer	Output: 'All commercial banking institutions are to submit comprehensive capital adequacy and stress test reports to the central authority by December 31.'

Activity 13: Future Continuous for Diplomatic Neutrality	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Inquiring about plans without imposing (Diplomatic Inquiry)
Objective	Use the Future Continuous (Will you be attending...) to ask about arrangements politely without making demands.
Instructions	Formulate a diplomatic email inquiry to a visiting minister regarding dinner availability.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Ask if the minister will stay for the evening reception.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Will you be attending the evening diplomatic reception following the afternoon bilateral summit?'

Activity 14: Future Perfect for Project Milestone Forecasting	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Projecting completion thresholds (Milestone Forecasting)
Objective	Deploy Future Perfect Simple (will have completed) to state deadlines in corporate proposals.
Instructions	Draft a timeline guarantee for a client software overhaul.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Complete phase 1 security audit before Q4.
Expected Answer	Output: 'By the conclusion of Q3, our engineering team will have completed the full infrastructure security overhaul across all regional servers.'

Activity 15: Future Perfect Continuous for Long-Term Projections	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Highlighting duration at a future reference point (Corporate Anniversary Narrative)
Objective	Use Future Perfect Continuous (will have been operating) to articulate upcoming corporate anniversaries and tenure.
Instructions	Write an annual report excerpt projecting corporate longevity.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Operating in European markets for 25 years next July.
Expected Answer	Output: 'By next July, our European division will have been operating continuously in the Frankfurt financial district for twenty-five years.'

Activity 16: Retrospective Future in Historical Analysis: 'Was to have done'	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Describing unfulfilled past expectations (Historical Analysis)
Objective	Deploy 'was/were to have + past participle' to describe formal arrangements that failed to materialize.
Instructions	Analyze a historic trade treaty that fell through.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Treaty was intended to lower tariffs in 1995, but negotiations failed.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The bilateral agreement was to have eliminated maritime tariffs across member states, but unexpected political shifts derailed final ratification.'

Activity 17: Instant Decisions vs. Considered Intentions: Will vs. Going to	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking — Spontaneous commitment in crisis negotiations (Crisis Dialogue)
Objective	Differentiate spontaneous commitments (I'll personally handle this) from prior strategic intentions (We are going to restructure).
Instructions	Draft a crisis meeting dialogue showing a CEO making an immediate pledge while referring to an existing plan.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Existing plan: close weak branches / Immediate pledge: call the union leader today.
Expected Answer	Output: 'We are going to close three underperforming branches next quarter as planned; however, given today's press reaction, I will personally contact the union leader this afternoon.'

Activity 18: Incase vs. If in Contingency Planning	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Preventative measures vs. conditional responses (Risk Mitigation)
Objective	Distinguish preventative actions taken before an event (in case) from conditional actions (if).
Instructions	Draft a risk mitigation policy clause regarding server backups.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Back up data daily before crashes / Restore data if crashes occur.
Expected Answer	Output: 'We maintain off-site cloud backups daily in case primary data centers suffer power loss; if server corruption occurs, IT will execute immediate disaster recovery.'

Activity 19: Temporal Subordinate Clauses: Present Simple for Future Time	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Using temporal conjunctions (when, as soon as, until) (Contractual Conditions)
Objective	Ensure present tenses are strictly used in future temporal clauses (when the contract is signed, NOT will be signed).
Instructions	Draft an executive closing condition sentence.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Releasing capital funds upon contract signing.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The financial escrow agent will release the capital funds as soon as both parties sign the final merger agreement.'

Activity 20: Predictive Certainty: Bound to / Sure to vs. Likely to	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Calibrating expectation strength (Market Forecasting)
Objective	Deploy 'bound to / sure to' for inevitable outcomes and 'likely to' for probabilistic trends.
Instructions	Write a market research forecast comparing interest rate impacts.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Inevitable inflation impact vs. probable currency appreciation.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Higher benchmark interest rates are bound to increase borrowing costs for small businesses, whereas foreign direct investment is merely likely to rise.'

Module 3: Modals of Deduction, Necessity & Retrospective Stance

Activity 21: Logical Deduction in Forensic Audits: Must have vs. Can't have	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Formulating high-confidence retrospective deductions (Forensic Audit)
Objective	Use 'must have + past participle' and 'can't/couldn't have + past participle' based on accounting evidence.
Instructions	Draft a forensic audit conclusion regarding missing treasury funds.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Vault logs show authorization key 4 / Chief accountant was on leave.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The perpetrator must have possessed executive administrative credentials to bypass the vault keyway; the chief accountant couldn't have executed the transaction, as biometric logs confirm she was abroad.'
Activity 22: Speculative Reconstruction: Might/May/Could have	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Degree of certainty in historical or legal analysis (Legal Opinion)
Objective	Distinguish subtle degrees of probability (might have, could have, may have) in legal case analysis.
Instructions	Draft a legal opinion evaluating secondary liability.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Third-party auditor failed to flag debt / Possible negligence or oversight.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The independent auditor might have overlooked the off-balance-sheet liabilities due to complex hedging, or they could have intentionally suppressed the findings.'
Activity 23: Retrospective Necessity: Needn't have vs. Didn't need to	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Differentiating unnecessary actions taken vs. avoided (Operational Audit)
Objective	Contrast 'needn't have + past participle' (action performed unnecessarily) with 'didn't need to' (action avoided).
Instructions	Draft an operational efficiency evaluation.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Company commissioned expensive survey (unnecessary) vs. Did not hire extra consultants (avoided).
Expected Answer	Output: 'The marketing team corporate division needn't have commissioned an external consumer survey, as internal analytics already held the data; fortunately, management didn't need to retain outside strategy consultants.'

Activity 24: Statutory Obligation vs. Advice: Must / Have to vs. Should / Ought to	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Calibrating compliance tone in handbooks (Governance Drafting)
Objective	Distinguish mandatory legal rules (must/have to) from recommended best practices (should/ought to).
Instructions	Draft a corporate governance policy excerpt.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Mandatory annual tax filing / Recommended quarterly internal reviews.
Expected Answer	Output: 'All regional subsidiaries must submit audited balance sheets annually to maintain commercial compliance; governance boards ought to conduct informal quarterly reviews.'

Activity 25: Modal Passives in Policy Directives	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Impersonal rule framing using modal passives (Impersonal Directives)
Objective	Construct formal modal passive structures (must be submitted, should be reviewed, can be altered).
Instructions	Draft an executive memo on confidential document handling.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Mandate that sensitive files be encrypted and not shared.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Classified project blueprints must be encrypted prior to transmission, and unauthorized distribution will be met with immediate termination.'

Activity 26: Diplomatic Advice: Had better vs. Would recommend	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Calibrating warning strength (Diplomatic Caution)
Objective	Use 'had better' for urgent warnings with negative consequences, and 'would recommend' for polite advice.
Instructions	Draft a diplomatic caution to a foreign trade delegation.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Urgent warning: comply with customs laws or face border delays.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Delegation members had better ensure all commercial samples are pre-cleared with customs, or shipments risk prolonged border impoundment.'

Activity 27: Past Regret and Counterfactual Critique: Should have / Ought to have	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Retrospective critique in board post-mortems (Board Post-Mortem)
Objective	Formulate constructive retrospective critiques of failed corporate strategies using 'should have'.
Instructions	Draft a post-mortem review of a failed software rollout.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Failure to run beta testing prior to public launch.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The product development division should have conducted extensive stress-testing prior to public rollout; earlier beta feedback would have prevented system crashes.'

Activity 28: Absence of Obligation in Regulatory Exemptions: Don't have to / Needn't	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Drafting statutory exemptions (Regulatory Exemption)
Objective	Use 'do not have to' or 'need not' to define categories exempt from commercial regulations.
Instructions	Draft a regulatory clause exempting small businesses from mandatory environmental filings.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Small businesses under $1M revenue exempted from carbon audits.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Commercial entities generating under $1 million in gross annual revenue need not submit formal carbon footprint audits.'

Activity 29: Epistemic Modality in Market Risk Assessments	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Expressing probability spectrums in financial reports (Financial Risk Narrative)
Objective	Combine modal expressions (could well, might easily, must inevitably) to build a nuanced risk assessment.
Instructions	Write a market analysis on central bank rate hikes.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Rate hikes will inevitably slow real estate, but could well stabilize currency.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Continued monetary tightening must inevitably damp consumer real estate borrowing; however, high benchmark yields could well stabilize the national currency.'

Activity 30: Refusing Permission: Must not vs. May not in Legal Contracts	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Prohibition clauses in commercial non-disclosure agreements (Contract Restrictive Covenant)
Objective	Deploy 'shall not / must not / may not' to draft binding non-disclosure prohibitions.
Instructions	Draft a restrictive covenant in an executive employment contract.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Executive prohibited from soliciting company clients for 2 years.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The executive shall not, under any circumstances, solicit or recruit existing client accounts for a period of twenty-four months following separation.'

Module 4: Conditionals, Wish & Unreal Past Hypothesis

Activity 31: Mixed Conditionals in Macroeconomic Forecasting	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Connecting past events with present outcomes (Economic Analysis)
Objective	Construct mixed conditional structures (Past condition → Present result, or Present condition → Past result).
Instructions	Draft an economic analysis linking 2020 fiscal policy to current inflation.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Central bank printed money in 2020 / Economy faces high inflation today.
Expected Answer	Output: 'If the central bank had not expanded liquidity so aggressively in 2020, the domestic economy would not be struggling with persistent inflation today.'

Activity 32: Inverted Conditionals in Executive Proposals	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Formal elimination of 'if' via inversion (Executive Rephrasing)
Objective	Deploy inverted conditional structures (Had we known..., Should you require..., Were the market to collapse...).
Instructions	Rewrite formal business correspondence to eliminate 'if' using inversion.
Task Prompt	Prompt: If the board should approve the capital expenditure, we will initiate procurement immediately.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Should the board approve the capital expenditure, our team will initiate machinery procurement immediately.'

Activity 33: Alternative Conditionals: Provided that / As long as / Supposing	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Drafting conditional contract clauses (Contractual Conditions)
Objective	Utilize conditional conjunctions (provided that, as long as, on condition that) in corporate agreements.
Instructions	Draft a vendor agreement clause specifying payment conditions.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Vendor paid within 30 days provided goods meet quality benchmarks.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The buyer agrees to settle all invoice amounts within thirty days, provided that the delivered electronics pass preliminary quality inspection.'

Activity 34: Hypothetical Stance: 'It's time...' and 'I'd rather you...'	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Expressing urgent strategic necessity (Negotiation Statement)
Objective	Deploy 'It is high time + past simple' and 'I would rather + subject + past simple' in executive negotiations.
Instructions	Draft a board statement expressing impatience regarding corporate restructuring.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Board needs to initiate corporate restructuring immediately.
Expected Answer	Output: 'It is high time management implemented structural cost reductions; furthermore, shareholders would rather the executive board took decisive action before Q4.'

Activity 35: Counterfactual Regret: Wish / If only + Past Perfect	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Expressing institutional regret in corporate debriefs (Corporate Debrief)
Objective	Formulate corporate debrief statements using 'I wish / If only + Past Perfect' to highlight missed opportunities.
Instructions	Draft a retro analysis of an abandoned merger proposal.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Regret over failing to acquire a biotech startup before competitors.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The acquisition committee wishes it had finalized negotiations with the biotech startup before rival firm secured exclusive patent rights.'

Activity 36: Unreal Present Hypothesis: 'As if / As though + Past Subjunctive'	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Critiquing unrealistic corporate valuations (Financial Critique)
Objective	Deploy 'as if / as though' with past subjunctive forms (were, acted) to describe deceptive market signals.
Instructions	Critique an overvalued tech startup's financial claims.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Startup valuation treats minor software as a universal monopoly.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The firm's executive team speaks as though their proprietary algorithm were an unassailable global monopoly, ignoring emerging open-source competitors.'
Activity 37: Conditionals without 'If': 'But for' / 'Were it not for'	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — High-register causality framing (Legal Argumentation)
Objective	Utilize 'but for' and 'were it not for / had it not been for' in formal legal arguments.
Instructions	Draft a defense argument in a corporate liability suit.
Task Prompt	Prompt: State intervention saved the industry from systemic collapse.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Had it not been for prompt emergency liquidity injections from the central treasury, the commercial banking sector would have suffered widespread insolvencies.'
Activity 38: Conditional Concession: Even if vs. Even though	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Contrasting hypothetical resistance with factual obstacles (Strategic Risk Statement)
Objective	Distinguish hypothetical scenarios (even if) from factual reality (even though) in corporate strategy.
Instructions	Draft a risk mitigation statement comparing hypothetical market drops to actual cost inflation.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Hypothetical: drop in consumer demand / Factual: raw material cost increase.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Even if global consumer demand softens next quarter, our diversified portfolio will maintain stability, even though current raw material inflation is eroding margins.'

Activity 39: Imlikely Future Conditions: 'If + should / happen to'	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Drafting low-probability legal contingencies (Insurance Policy Clause)
Objective	Formulate clauses covering rare events using 'if you should happen to' or 'should + subject'.
Instructions	Draft an insurance policy clause covering catastrophic industrial accidents.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Rare occurrence of seismic activity causing structural failure.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Should seismic activity exceed magnitude 6.0 and cause structural failure, insurer liability shall be limited to direct property replacement values.'

Activity 40: Counterfactual Self-Correction: 'Otherwise / Or else'	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Signposting logical consequences in debate (Debate Signposting)
Objective	Use 'otherwise' and 'or else' to signpost negative conditional consequences in policy debates.
Instructions	Formulate a persuasive debate speech fragment on cybersecurity investment.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Invest in multi-factor authentication, or face severe data breaches.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Financial institutions must immediately mandate multi-factor authentication; otherwise, systemic user credential harvesting will compromise customer trust.'

Module 5: Passive Voice Transformations & Agent Suppression

Activity 41: Subject-Raising Passives in Investigative Reporting	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Attribute claims using reporting passives (Journalistic Transformation)
Objective	Transform active claims into formal subject-raising passives (is alleged to have, is thought to be).
Instructions	Upgrade an active news snippet into formal journalistic style.
Task Prompt	Prompt: 'Authorities believe the CEO siphoned $10 million into offshore accounts.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'The chief executive officer is believed to have siphoned $10 million into offshore bank accounts prior to his resignation.'

Activity 42: Impersonal 'It-Passives' in Official Press Releases	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Deploying impersonal reporting structures (Press Release Drafting)
Objective	Construct impersonal passive reporting sentences (It is understood that, It has been agreed that).
Instructions	Draft an official corporate announcement regarding merger terms.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Announce that both companies agreed to pool assets.
Expected Answer	Output: 'It has been formally agreed that both regional telecommunications providers will pool infrastructure assets to accelerate 5G deployment.'
Activity 43: Agent Suppression for Objectivity in Scientific Abstracts	Level: C1 Scientific Abstract Revision
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Eliminating personal pronouns in lab procedures (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Rewrite active lab summaries into agentless passive prose to maintain scientific objectivity.
Instructions	Rewrite: 'We measured the chemical samples and found that heat increased toxicity.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'Chemical samples were measured at five-minute intervals; subsequent analysis revealed that elevated temperatures significantly increased compound toxicity.'
Expected Answer	Advanced
Activity 44: Passive Gerunds and Infinitives in Legal Contracts	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Drafting entitlement and liability clauses (Legal Instrument Drafting)
Objective	Deploy passive gerunds (being subjected to) and passive infinitives (to be paid) in legal instruments.
Instructions	Draft an indemnity clause protecting employee rights.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Employees entitled to be reimbursed for travel expenses without being subjected to tax.
Expected Answer	Output: 'All corporate officers are entitled to be reimbursed for business travel expenses without being subjected to local income tax withholdings.'

Activity 45: Get-Passives vs. Be-Passives in Colloquial vs. Formal Registers	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Register auditing and stylistic conversion (Register Audit)
Objective	Convert informal 'get-passives' (got fired, got damaged) into formal 'be-passives' (was terminated, was compromised).
Instructions	Upgrade an informal incident memo for executive distribution.
Task Prompt	Prompt: 'The server got hacked and two engineers got fired after the breach.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'The primary data server was compromised by unauthorized intrusion, and two systems engineers were subsequently terminated following the breach.'

Activity 46: Double Passive Avoidance in Policy Documentation	Level: C2 Policy Editing
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Correcting ungrammatical or clumsy double passives (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Identify and repair awkward double passive structures in corporate policy drafts.
Instructions	Audit and repair: 'The order was attempted to be delivered by the courier.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'The courier attempted to deliver the order.' OR 'An attempt was made to deliver the order.'
Expected Answer	Mastery

Activity 47: Passive with Verbs of Giving: Dual Object Reordering	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Shifting focus between indirect and direct objects (Object Reordering)
Objective	Reorder passive sentences with two objects (give, award, grant) to highlight the recipient over the object.
Instructions	Draft a press release paragraph highlighting an executive grant award.
Task Prompt	Prompt: The foundation awarded Dr. Vance a $2 million research grant.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Dr. Vance was awarded a $2 million research grant by the national science foundation to expand clinical trials.'

Activity 48: End-Weight Placement via Passive Restructuring	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Reordering complex clauses for rhetorical flow (End-Weight Restructuring)
Objective	Use the passive voice to move long, heavy noun phrases to the end of the sentence (end-weight principle).
Instructions	Restructure a complex sentence to place a 15-word noun phrase at the end.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Active: 'A coalition of environmental groups, municipal unions, and local business owners opposed the new highway proposal.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'The new highway proposal was vigorously opposed by a broad coalition of environmental groups, municipal unions, and local business owners.'

Activity 49: Passive Reporting with Modals: 'Supposed to be'	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Expressing unverified expectations vs. reality (QA Feedback Report)
Objective	Use 'be supposed to' to contrast intended software specifications with actual operational flaws.
Instructions	Draft a software QA feedback report.
Task Prompt	Prompt: System intended to process 1,000 transactions per second, but crashes at 200.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The transaction engine is supposed to process up to 1,000 requests per second, yet benchmark tests reveal system failure at 200.'

Activity 50: Causative Passives in Corporate Asset Management: 'Have something done'	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Expressing commissioned external services (Operations Reporting)
Objective	Utilize causative structures (have/get something done) to describe corporate outsourcing.
Instructions	Draft a facility management operations report.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Company commissioned external audit of security systems.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The executive committee had the entire headquarters security system audited by an independent cybersecurity firm last month.'

Module 6: Reported Speech, Indirect Sourcing & Diplomatic Distance

Activity 51: Backshifting Nuance in Executive Briefings	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Accurate tense adaptation in formal summary reports (Board Minutes Summarization)
Objective	Apply backshifting rules accurately when summarizing verbal board statements into written executive minutes.
Instructions	Convert direct boardroom speech into formal reported minutes.
Task Prompt	Prompt: CEO: 'We are expanding into Asia next year because profits have exceeded expectations.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'The CEO stated that the company was expanding into Asian markets the following year because profits had exceeded initial expectations.'
Activity 52: Non-Backshifting for Timeless Truths in Policy Summaries	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Preserving present tense for enduring facts (Scientific Reporting)
Objective	Identify scenarios where reported verbs remain in the present tense because facts remain currently valid.
Instructions	Summarize a scientific researcher's presentation on climate change.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Lead Scientist: 'Carbon dioxide traps heat in the atmosphere.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'The lead climatologist emphasized that atmospheric carbon dioxide traps heat, reinforcing the necessity of immediate emissions cuts.'
Activity 53: Reporting Verbs + Prepositional Complementation	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Categorizing advanced reporting verbs by complement syntax (Diplomatic Correspondence)
Objective	Deploy advanced reporting verbs requiring specific prepositions (congratulate on, blame for, apologise for, insist on).
Instructions	Draft a corporate diplomacy letter summarizing negotiations.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Trade envoy apologized for delays and insisted on proceeding with the signing.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The trade envoy apologized for the logistical delays and insisted on proceeding with the formal signing ceremony immediately.'

Activity 54: Diplomatic Subjunctive in Formal Recomm endations	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Mandative subjunctive after reporting verbs of demand/request (Shareholder Resolution)
Objective	Utilize the mandative subjunctive (recommended that he be, demanded that the firm comply) in formal resolution texts.
Instructions	Draft a shareholder resolution text.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Recommend that the board audit all executive stock option allocations.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The governance committee recommends that the board of directors initiate an immediate independent audit of all executive stock option allocations.'

Activity 55: Indirect Question Framing in Executive Interviews	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Softening inquiry tone through embedded syntax (Press Conference Framing)
Objective	Transform direct questions into embedded indirect questions (Do you know if..., Could you clarify why...).
Instructions	Formulate three polite, embedded questions for a press conference with a CEO.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Ask why the merger failed, when layoffs begin, and if profits dropped.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Could you clarify why merger negotiations broke down? Furthermore, would you mind explaining when regional restructuring will commence, and whether Q3 revenues fell?'

Activity 56: Reported Speech with Modal Shifts: Must → Had to / Would have to	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Shifting modal obligation across temporal boundaries (Legal Compliance Brief)
Objective	Accurately backshift modal verbs in reported contexts (must → had to or was to).
Instructions	Summarize an legal advisor's mandatory compliance warning.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Legal Counsel: 'You must submit the SEC filing before midnight.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'Legal counsel warned the board that they had to submit the SEC filing prior to midnight to avoid severe regulatory fines.'

Activity 57: Reporting Verbs with Infinitive vs. Gerund Architecture	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Selecting appropriate verb complementation patterns (Testimony Summarization)
Objective	Distinguish reporting verbs taking to-infinitive (promise, refuse, threaten) from those taking -ing (admit, deny, suggest).
Instructions	Draft a legal summary of opposing testimony.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Defendant denied committing fraud but offered to repay investors.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The defendant denied manipulating financial records; however, he offered to reimburse affected retail investors in full.'

Activity 58: Distance and Allegation Signposting in Journalism	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Deploying distance markers (allegedly, reportedly, purportedly) (Journalistic Neutrality)
Objective	Use adverbs of stance and reporting clauses to distance a news agency from unverified allegations.
Instructions	Draft a neutral news report on a corporate fraud investigation.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Allegations that a tech firm falsified user engagement metrics.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The social media startup reportedly inflated its daily active user metrics, according to documents purportedly leaked by a former compliance officer.'

Activity 59: Summarizing Multi-Turn Dialogues into Executive Briefs	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Synthesizing dialogue into dense indirect prose (Dialogue Synthesis)
Objective	Condense a multi-turn transcript into a single, cohesive indirect reporting paragraph.
Instructions	Synthesize a 4-turn negotiation transcript into a executive summary paragraph.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Buyer offered $10M; Seller rejected; Buyer raised to $12M; Seller accepted on condition of cash payment.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The buyer initially offered $10 million, which the seller rejected; however, after the buyer raised the bid to $12 million, the seller accepted, provided payment was made in cash.'

Activity 60: Indirect Speech for Diplomatic Rejections	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Softening negative decisions using reported passive framing (Diplomatic Rejection)
Objective	Draft a formal rejection letter using indirect reported structures to cushion commercial disappointment.
Instructions	Draft a vendor proposal rejection letter.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Reject vendor bid due to pricing while acknowledging high quality.
Expected Answer	Output: 'While it was unanimously agreed that your technical proposal demonstrated exceptional quality, the committee reported that cost constraints precluded selection of your bid.'

Module 7: Non-Finite Clauses & Verb Complementation

Activity 61: Verb + -ing vs. To-Infinitive: Semantic Shifts in Executive Strategy	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Precision in verb complementation (remember, regret, try, stop) (Complementation Nuance)
Objective	Differentiate between -ing and to-infinitive complementation for verbs like stop, try, regret, and remember.
Instructions	Draft two contrasting strategic sentences demonstrating the semantic shift of 'regret' and 'stop'.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Regret announcing layoffs (past action) vs. Regret to inform you of layoffs (present communication).
Expected Answer	Output: 'We deeply regret to inform shareholders that plant operations will cease in Q4; looking back, management regrets not diversifying product lines earlier.'

Activity 62: Participle Clauses for Syntactic Compression in Financial Analyses	Level: C1 Syntactic Compression
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Reducing adverbial clauses into active/passive participle phrases (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Compress full adverbial clauses into present (-ing) or past (-ed) participle clauses.
Instructions	Compress: 'Because the company recognized the risk of insolvency, it liquidated non-core assets.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'Recognizing the immediate risk of insolvency, the board liquidated its non-core overseas assets.'
Expected Answer	Advanced

Activity 63: Object Complementation with Bare Infinitives vs. Participles: See / Hear / Notice	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Distinguishing completed actions from ongoing events (Perception Complementation)
Objective	Differentiate perception verb complementation: see + object + bare infinitive (complete action) vs. participle (ongoing action).
Instructions	Draft a security audit statement describing surveillance footage analysis.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Saw intruder breach fence (complete) vs. Saw intruder scaling wall (ongoing).
Expected Answer	Output: 'Security personnel saw the intruder breach the outer perimeter gate at 02:00, and later observed him scaling the primary office wall.'

Activity 64: Dangling Participle Repair in Professional Editing	Level: C1 Diagnostic Editing
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Diagnosing and fixing misaligned participle subjects (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Identify dangling participle errors where the implicit subject of the participle clause does not match the main clause subject.
Instructions	Diagnose and repair: 'Walking into the boardroom, the financial charts were presented by the CEO.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'Walking into the boardroom, the CEO presented the financial charts.' OR 'As the board entered the room, the CEO presented the financial charts.'
Expected Answer	Advanced

Activity 65: Complex Gerund Structures: Passive and Perfect Forms	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Expressing past passive events via gerund phrases (Complex Gerund Drafting)
Objective	Deploy perfect passive gerunds (having been audited, having been rejected) in executive reports.
Instructions	Draft a compliance summary regarding past regulatory audits.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Company survived being audited three times without penalty.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Despite having been subjected to repeated regulatory investigations, the firm maintains an immaculate compliance record.'

Activity 66: Adjective + To-Infinitive Patterns: Easy to talk to vs. It is easy to...	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Object-to-subject raising in professional profiles (Subject Raising Restructuring)
Objective	Utilize structures like 'X is difficult to manage' vs. 'It is difficult to manage X' for stylistic variety.
Instructions	Rewrite corporate analysis sentences using subject raising.
Task Prompt	Prompt: 'It is challenging to navigate these foreign market regulations.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'These foreign market regulations are exceptionally challenging to navigate without localized legal counsel.'
Activity 67: Preposition + Gerund in Policy Implementation Frameworks	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Linking actions with formal prepositional gerunds (Policy Framework Drafting)
Objective	Construct sentences combining complex prepositions (by means of, in addition to, instead of) with gerund phrases.
Instructions	Draft an operational policy statement regarding digital document workflows.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Streamline operations by digitizing records instead of storing physical paper.
Expected Answer	Output: 'In addition to reducing archival overhead, digitizing historical records accelerates retrieval times without compromising document security.'
Activity 68: Infinitive of Purpose vs. 'So that' Clause Calibration	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Expressing purpose with clear subject alignment (Purpose Clause Precision)
Objective	Choose between 'in order to / so as to + infinitive' (same subject) and 'so that + modal clause' (different subject).
Instructions	Draft a corporate IT security directive.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Enforce password changes so that hackers cannot access accounts.
Expected Answer	Output: 'IT administrators enforce mandatory 90-day password updates so that unauthorized external actors cannot compromise internal databases.'

Activity 69: Absolute Participle Constructions in Formal Narratives	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Deploying nominative absolute clauses (Absolute Clause Construction)
Objective	Construct absolute participle clauses with independent subjects (Weather permitting, All options having been exhausted).
Instructions	Draft a crisis management resolution.
Task Prompt	Prompt: All negotiations failed; board voted to liquidate.
Expected Answer	Output: 'All diplomatic avenues having been exhausted, the board voted unanimously to file for statutory insolvency protection.'

Activity 70: Causative Verbs with Infinitive vs. Bare Infinitive: Make, Let, Allow, Cause	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Calibrating force and permission in administrative prose (Causative Syntax)
Objective	Distinguish syntax: make/let + bare infinitive vs. allow/cause/force + to-infinitive.
Instructions	Draft a workplace compliance guideline excerpt.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Regulations force management to disclose executive compensation.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Federal transparency laws cause public corporations to disclose all executive compensation structures annually, making secrecy impossible.'

Module 8: Noun Phrase Architecture, Articles & Quantifiers

Activity 71: Generic vs. Specific Article Usage in Academic Writing	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Distinguishing general classes from specific instances (Article Calibration)
Objective	Correctly apply 'the' for generic singular classes (The computer changed society) vs. zero article for plural generalizations (Computers are ubiquitous).
Instructions	Draft an introductory thesis paragraph on economic technology.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Compare the general impact of 'technology' vs. specific 'the technology' introduced in 2020.
Expected Answer	Output: 'While technology continuously drives macroeconomic expansion, the specific encryption technology developed in 2020 revolutionized commercial banking security.'

Activity 72: Abstract Noun Countability Shifts: Experience vs. An Experience	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Navigating dual-meaning count/noncount nouns (Abstract Noun Precision)
Objective	Deploy count and noncount variations of abstract nouns (experience/an experience, business/a business, work/a work).
Instructions	Draft two sentences showing the semantic shift of 'business' and 'light'.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Business (general commercial activity) vs. A business (commercial entity).
Expected Answer	Output: 'International business requires deep cross-cultural fluency; establishing a foreign business, however, demands rigorous local legal compliance.'

Activity 73: Quantifier Precision in Market Research: Few / Little vs. A Few / A Little	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Attitudinal nuance in quantitative descriptions (Quantifier Attitudinal Nuance)
Objective	Use 'few/little' (negative/insufficient connotation) vs. 'a few/a little' (positive/sufficient connotation) in financial reporting.
Instructions	Draft two financial survey statements highlighting liquidity sufficiency vs. scarcity.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Insufficient reserves remaining vs. Small but sufficient funds remaining.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The startup has little capital remaining to weather prolonged market downturns; fortunately, a few venture partners have offered emergency credit lines.'

Activity 74: Partitive Structures with Uncountable Nouns in Procurement	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Using specific measure words with noncount assets (Partitive Procurement)
Objective	Deploy partitive phrases (a stroke of, a piece of, an item of, a spate of) in corporate procurement descriptions.
Instructions	Draft an equipment and asset procurement list memo.
Task Prompt	Prompt: List procurement items: news, advice, machinery, research.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The quarterly budget allocation includes three critical items of heavy machinery, alongside several key pieces of market research advice.'

Activity 75: Distributive Quantifiers: Each vs. Every in Statutory Directives	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Individual focus vs. collective group focus (Distributive Precision)
Objective	Distinguish between 'each' (individual items considered separately) and 'every' (all items in a group collectively) in policy writing.
Instructions	Draft a legal compliance directive for corporate directors.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Inspect every branch collectively / Audit each director individually.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The compliance officer must inspect every branch within the network annually; during audits, each director will be interviewed separately.'

Activity 76: Complex Noun Stacks and De-stacking for Clarity	Level: C2 Noun Stack Editing
Skill / Subskill	Writing — De-stacking noun-adjunct chains into prepositional phrases (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Identify overly dense noun stacks (urban mass transit infrastructure development plan) and de-stack them for executive readability.
Instructions	De-stack: 'The national health service patient record database security update project.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'The project to update data security within the national health service's patient record database.'
Expected Answer	Mastery

Activity 77: Agreement Alignment with Collective and Group Nouns	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Navigating singular vs. plural verb agreement (Agreement Consistency)
Objective	Apply corporate agreement norms (US English singular agreement vs. UK English collective plural option) consistently.
Instructions	Draft a press statement using 'the committee' and 'the board' with consistent verb agreement.
Task Prompt	Prompt: The board has decided (US) vs. The board have decided (UK).
Expected Answer	Output: 'The executive committee has finalized its strategic audit, and the board of directors is preparing to publish its consensus decision tomorrow.'

Activity 78: Possessive Nominal Structures: 'Of' Phrase vs. Possessive 'S	Level: C1 Genitive Selection
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Selecting appropriate genitive structures for inanimate objects (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Distinguish appropriate contexts for possessive 's (people, organizations, time) vs. 'of' phrases (inanimate objects, complex concepts).
Instructions	Audit and re-draft: 'The computer's screen resolution and the company's annual profit.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'The resolution of the monitor display requires optimization, whereas the company's annual profit exceeded investor expectations.'
Expected Answer	Advanced
Activity 79: Prepositional Post-Modification in Noun Phrases	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Building dense, formal subject noun phrases (Dense Noun Phrase Construction)
Objective	Construct multi-layered subject noun phrases incorporating prepositional post-modifiers for scholarly writing.
Instructions	Draft a single dense subject noun phrase functioning as sentence topic.
Task Prompt	Prompt: A rise / in interest rates / by the central bank / during economic expansion.
Expected Answer	Output: 'A rapid rise in benchmark interest rates by the central bank during periods of inflationary expansion frequently suppresses corporate capital investment.'
Activity 80: Exclusive and Inclusive Quantifiers: Both / Neither / Either	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Dual-entity comparative precision in legal briefs (Dual Quantifier Agreement)
Objective	Correctly utilize 'both...and', 'neither...nor', and 'either...or' with strict parallel subject-verb agreement.
Instructions	Draft a contract dispute statement evaluating two breaching parties.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Neither Supplier A nor Supplier B fulfilled contractual delivery timelines.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Neither Supplier A nor Supplier B has fulfilled its delivery obligations, leaving both firms liable for contractual liquidated damages.'

Module 9: Relative Clauses, Appositive Framing & Information Packaging

Activity 81: Defining vs. Non-Defining Relative Clauses in Policy Definition	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Essential restriction vs. parenthetical elaboration (Comma Distinction in Law)
Objective	Distinguish restrictive (defining, no commas) from non-restrictive (non-defining, commas) relative clauses in regulatory texts.
Instructions	Draft two legal statements where comma placement alters statutory scope completely.
Task Prompt	Prompt: (1) Only employees who worked 5 years get bonuses. (2) All employees, who worked 5 years, get bonuses.
Expected Answer	Output: '1. Senior executives who completed five years of service were awarded equity options. [Only those executives] 2. Senior executives, who completed five years of service, were awarded equity options. [All executives, all of whom served 5 years]'
Activity 82: Formal Preposed Prepositions in Relative Clauses: 'In which / To whom'	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Eliminating stranded prepositions in formal register (Preposition Preposing)
Objective	Convert sentences with stranded prepositions (the project we worked on) into formal preposed structures (the project on which we labored).
Instructions	Rewrite business proposal sentences into high-level formal register.
Task Prompt	Prompt: 'The legal framework that we agreed to is non-binding.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'The regulatory framework to which both international parties consented remains strictly non-binding.'
Activity 83: Quantifier + Relative Pronoun Structures: 'Most of which / Half of whom'	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Synthesizing quantitative research data (Quantitative Synthesis)
Objective	Construct relative clauses incorporating quantifiers (several of which, the majority of whom, none of which).
Instructions	Draft a demographic summary paragraph synthesizing survey findings.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Surveyed 500 executives; 300 held master's degrees; 50 had founded startups.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The researchers surveyed 500 corporate executives, the majority of whom held postgraduate degrees and several of whom had established successful tech ventures.'

Activity 84: Appositive Noun Phrases for Concise Attribution	Level: C1 Appositive Compression
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Compressing descriptions into non-restrictive appositives (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Reduce relative clauses into concise appositive noun phrases to improve editorial density.
Instructions	Compress: 'Dr. Evelyn Reed, who is the principal director of the national research lab, announced the discovery.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'Dr. Evelyn Reed, principal director of the national research lab, announced the discovery of the synthetic enzyme.'
Expected Answer	Advanced

Activity 85: Sentential Relative Clauses with 'Which'	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Commenting on entire clause propositions (Clause Commentary)
Objective	Construct sentential relative clauses using 'which' to comment on an entire preceding statement.
Instructions	Draft a financial commentary sentence interpreting unexpected earnings.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Q3 profits rose 40%; this surprised market analysts.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Quarterly operating margins expanded by forty percent, which unexpectedly prompted credit rating agencies to upgrade the firm's debt status.'

Activity 86: Reduced Relative Participle Clauses in News Bulletins	Level: C1 Relative Reduction
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Active and passive relative clause reduction (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Reduce relative clauses containing passive verbs (which was designed by) or active verbs (who are leading) into participle phrases.
Instructions	Reduce: 'The infrastructure bill, which was passed by parliament last night, allocates $5 billion to regional transit.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'The infrastructure bill passed by parliament last night allocates $5 billion to regional transit networks.'
Expected Answer	Advanced

Activity 87: Relative Pronoun Choice: Whose vs. Of which for Inanimate Nouns	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Stylistic selection in academic prose (Inanimate Possessive Relative)
Objective	Deploy 'whose' and 'of which' appropriately when referring to inanimate nouns in scientific documentation.
Instructions	Draft a structural engineering description of an eco-friendly building.
Task Prompt	Prompt: The skyscraper whose solar facade generates power / The skyscraper the facade of which...
Expected Answer	Output: 'Architects unveiled an administrative tower whose innovative photovoltaic facade generates sufficient electricity to power all HVAC operations.'
Activity 88: Cleft Structures for Rhetorical Focus: It-Clefts vs. Wh-Clefts	Level: C2 Cleft Focus Reordering
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Packaging information for argumentative emphasis (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Reorder standard sentences into it-clefts (It was X that...) or wh-clefts (What X did was...) to highlight key arguments.
Instructions	Reorder for emphasis: 'Incompetent management destroyed the firm's market share.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'It was incompetent management, rather than external market forces, that eroded the corporation's market share.'
Expected Answer	Mastery
Activity 89: Fronting and Directional Inversion for Descriptive Impact	Level: C2 Fronting Inversion
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Syntactic inversion in high-level prose (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Deploy fronted prepositional phrases followed by inverted verb-subject order for narrative emphasis.
Instructions	Front and invert: 'A massive corporate restructuring plan lay behind the sudden resignation.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'Behind the chief executive's abrupt resignation lay a contentious and protracted corporate restructuring plan.'
Expected Answer	Mastery

Activity 90: Relative Clause Discontinuity Repair	Level: C1 Ambiguity Resolution
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Resolving separated relative clauses and modifier ambiguity (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Identify and repair discontinuous relative clauses where modifying clauses are awkwardly separated from antecedents.
Instructions	Repair: 'A report was published on corporate environmental tax compliance that criticized offshore loopholes.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'A report that criticized offshore tax loopholes was published on corporate environmental compliance.' OR 'A newly published report on corporate tax compliance severely criticized offshore loopholes.'
Expected Answer	Advanced

Module 10: Conjunctions, Prepositions & Phrasal Verbs

Activity 91: Advanced Concession Signposting: Although vs. In Spite Of / Despite	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Grammatical syntax calibration across concessive linkers (Concessive Syntax Shift)
Objective	Distinguish clause-introducing subordinators (although, even though) from noun/gerund-introducing prepositions (in spite of, despite).
Instructions	Rewrite concessive statements ensuring correct syntactic complementation.
Task Prompt	Prompt: 'Although market volatility was severe, the fund secured 12% returns.' (Rewrite using 'despite')
Expected Answer	Output: 'Despite severe macroeconomic volatility, the hedge fund secured a twelve percent annualized return for investors.'

Activity 92: Prepositional Locatives in Data Chart Commentary	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Describing quantitative charts using exact prepositions (Chart Commentary)
Objective	Deploy prepositions of degree, movement, and threshold (stand at, peak at, hover around, fluctuate between, plummet to).
Instructions	Draft a financial chart description excerpt using precise spatial/numerical prepositions.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Revenue stood at $10M, peaked at $15M in June, dropped to $8M in August, and settled around $11M.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Gross revenue stood at $10 million in Q1, peaked at $15 million in June, plummeted to $8 million in August, and finally settled around $11 million by Q4.'

Activity 93: Phrasal Verb Register Elevation in Executive Memos	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Upgrading multi-word verbs to Latinate equivalents (Register Elevation)
Objective	Replace colloquial phrasal verbs (look into, put off, bring about, set up) with formal single-word verbs (investigate, postpone, precipitate, establish).
Instructions	Audit and upgrade a casual operational briefing email.
Task Prompt	Prompt: 'We need to look into the glitch, put off the product launch, and bring about better testing.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'Engineering must thoroughly investigate the system vulnerability, postpone the commercial rollout, and execute enhanced quality assurance protocols.'
Activity 94: Separable vs. Inseparable Phrasal Verb Syntax	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Managing object pronoun placement with particle verbs (Particle Syntax Correction)
Objective	Apply strict pronoun placement rules with separable phrasal verbs (work it out, cross it off, NOT work out it).
Instructions	Correct syntactic errors in corporate task checklists.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Correct: 'We must carry out it immediately and write down them.'
Expected Answer	Output: 'We must carry it out immediately and write them down before the executive debrief.'
Activity 95: Complex Prepositional Locutions in Legal Policy	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Deploying 3-word prepositional phrases (Statutory Phrase Construction)
Objective	Construct formal statutory statements utilizing complex 3-word prepositions (in accordance with, by virtue of, with respect to).
Instructions	Draft a formal legal notice clause.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Cancel contract as allowed by Clause 9 regarding safety breaches.
Expected Answer	Output: 'By virtue of statutory authority granted under Clause 9, management hereby terminates the vendor contract with respect to persistent safety non-compliance.'

Activity 96: Aspectual Particle Meanings in Business Phrasal Verbs	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Understanding particle nuances (off = removal/cancellation, out = completeness) (Particle Nuance)
Objective	Differentiate particle aspectual nuances: call off (cancel) vs. phase out (gradual reduction) vs. wear off (diminishing effect).
Instructions	Draft an operational restructuring timeline memo.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Cancel old projects, gradually remove legacy software, and wait for initial confusion to pass.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Management will immediately call off non-essential software initiatives and phase out legacy mainframe systems over six months as initial transition frictions wear off.'

Activity 97: Double Prepositional Phrasal Verbs in Negotiation Speech	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Speaking/Writing — Utilizing three-part phrasal verbs in real-time discussion (Three-Part Phrasal Verbs)
Objective	Deploy 3-part phrasal verbs (come up against, look down on, put up with, cut down on) in executive negotiation contexts.
Instructions	Draft a negotiation statement expressing unwillingness to tolerate delays.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Refuse to tolerate supplier excuses while facing regulatory hurdles.
Expected Answer	Output: 'Our procurement team cannot put up with repeated supply delays, especially when coming up against stringent national compliance deadlines.'

Activity 98: Differentiating 'By' and 'Until' in Time-Bound Contracts	Level: C1 Advanced
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Setting strict deadlines vs. continuous states (Contract Deadline Precision)
Objective	Distinguish 'by' (action completed on or before a point) from 'until' (state continuing up to a point) in commercial contracts.
Instructions	Draft two contract clauses specifying a completion deadline versus a ongoing service period.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Deliver shipment before Friday / Maintain security system continuously through December.
Expected Answer	Output: '1. The vendor shall deliver all hardware components by Friday afternoon. 2. The contractor shall maintain site security services until December 31.'

Activity 99: Conjunctions of Result: Consequently / As a result / Thereby + -ing	Level: C2 Mastery
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Expressing formal logical outcome and causality (Causal Result Syntax)
Objective	Deploy advanced result linkers, including 'thereby + present participle' (thereby reducing overhead).
Instructions	Draft a corporate efficiency proposal sentence.
Task Prompt	Prompt: Company automated invoice processing; this reduced administrative costs by 20%.
Expected Answer	Output: 'The enterprise automated its accounts payable workflows, thereby reducing administrative processing costs by twenty percent.'

Activity 100: Comprehensive Register & Grammar Proofreading Audit	Level: C2 Executive Proofreading Audit
Skill / Subskill	Writing — Multi-error diagnostic and professional polish (Grammar Practice)
Objective	Locate and correct 5 discrete grammatical errors across tenses, articles, prepositions, and relative clauses in an executive draft.
Instructions	Audit draft text: 'The company who launched in 2010 has been achieving success by 5 years, despite it was small.'
Task Prompt	Output: 'Audit Corrections: 1. who → which/that (inanimate company), 2. has been achieving → has achieved / achieved, 3. by 5 years → for 5 years, 4. despite it was small → although it was small / despite being small. Revised: 'The company, which was launched in 2010, has achieved substantial market success over the past five years, although it began as a minor regional startup.'
Expected Answer	Mastery